

The HRB heavy duty automated bollard is ideal for a range of industrial and commercial sites and especially useful in architecturally sensitive areas. The unit lies flush with the road when lowered and rises to 640mm or 800mm at full extension.

It can be operated by a range of access control systems and can be programmed to your exact requirements.

FEATURES

BENEFITS

Manufactured to exceed BS6571 and welding to BS4872

Built to last giving a guaranteed quality product

Raised and lowered in approx 4-6 seconds

Quick operation means no build up of traffic

Extra Fast Operation 2 seconds (Optional)

Extra Security

Micro-Processor Logic Controls

Flexible methods of operation

Hot dip galvanised to BS1461

Attractive finish

Extremely strong

Minimal ongoing maintenance

Robust

Vandal resistant

Effective vehicle barrier

Unobtrusive to pedestrians

Low running cost

Economical

Polyethylene Roller operation on stainless steel shafts

Long life and smooth operation

