

The PFH full height turnstile is designed to provide pedestrian security and can be installed on the perimeter or any access control point within commercial and industrial environments.

Designed and manufactured to be robust, functional and to interface with all forms of access control, these units will last for many years.

FEATURES

BENEFITS

Heavy duty mechanism

Reliable, built to last

Optional motorisation

Hands-free use

Available in 3 or 4 arm
(120° and 90°)

Standard or higher degree of security

Power fail status

Secured or optional free pass

Universal/programmable logic control

Allows use of card readers, push buttons, code pads and other devices

Unit comes ready assembled

Speed and ease of installation

Key override fitted as standard

Allows key holders to override access locally

Available in a range of colours

Finished to match requirements of individual sites

